

FERPA Student-Athlete Waiver Education Information

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, as amended, seeks to guarantee both a student's right of access to records and the confidentiality of student information. In accordance with federal law and College policy, we generally will not share student academic information (apart from directory information) with third parties.

This form allows students to grant coaches of designated sport and Clarendon College Athletic Administration access to their education records maintained by Clarendon College.

All permissions granted will stay in effect until revoked by the student.

Note: this form pertains to all academic records, including financial information associated with those records. This form does not pertain to medical records or inquiries.

Student Disclosure and Release Information:

I understand that any and all personally identifiable information concerning my academic records is protected under FERPA. This release allows the coaching staff of my listed sport and athletic administration to access information from my educational records. I agree to waive my rights under FERPA and allow the identified individuals above to receive access to my education records.

Along with releasing my educational records, I also authorize Clarendon College and the individuals identified above to release my photo and athletic performance information to the media. This information will be used to promote and market the school as well as the above named student-athlete.

I hereby release Clarendon College, its employees and agents from the legal responsibilities or liability that may arise from this act.
